AT A MEETING OF THE COLLEGE COUNCIL, HELD THE 17TH DAY OF APRIL, 1880, AT THE HOUSE OF W. F. ODELL, Esquire, SECRETARY OF THE PROVINCE—

PRESENT,

His Honor WILLIAM BLACK, Esquire, D. C. L. Chancellor,
The Reverend EDWIN JACOB, D. D. Vice-President,
The Reverend JAMES SOMERVILLE, L. L. D. } Professors,
The Reverend GEORGE M'CAWLEY, A. M. }
The Honorable JOHN SAUNDERS,
WILLIAM FRANKLIN ODELL, Esquire,

GEORGE FREDERICK STREET, Esquire, Registrar,

THE FOLLOWING CODE OF STATUTES WAS READ AND APPROVED.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers and provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of the Province of New-Brunswick, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act to enable the Governor and Trustees of the College of New-Brunswick to make a conditional Surrender of their Charter, and for the further Endowment of the College upon the granting of a new Charter," the said Governor and Trustees did surrender their Charter into His Majesty's hands;

And whereas His Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept the said Surrender, and to grant a Royal Charter under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the 15th day of December, in the eighth year of his Majesty's reign, for the Establishment of a College in or near the town of Fredericton, with the style and privileges of an University, to be called KING'S COLLEGE; and has granted to the COLLEGE COUNCIL, in the same Charter, Power and Authority to frame and make Statutes, Rules and Ordinances touching and concerning the good Government of the said College, and all matters regarding the same;

Be it therefore enacted and declared, That the following shall be the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances for the Government of the said College, until the same or any part thereof be altered or annulled in the manner expressed in the said Royal Charter; That is to say:—

THE STATUTES, RULES and ORDINANCES, of the University of KING'S COLLEGE, at FREDERICTON, in the Province of New Brunswick.

BOOK I.
OF PERSONS.

TITLE I.—Of the Corporation.

THE CHARTER incorporates the COLLEGE, and endows it with the rights and privileges of an University, by the name and style of "THE CHANCELLOR, PRESIDENT AND SCHOLARS OF KING'S COLLEGE." The King, as Founder and Patron, appoints the Visitor, Chancellor and President, and creates the Council and Convocation. His Majesty reserves to himself the power of reviewing, confirming, or revising by any Order in Council, the decisions, sentences, or orders of the Visitor, in reference to the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances.

TIT. II.—Of the Visitor.

- I. The Bishop of the Diocese, for and on the behalf of the King's Most Excellent Majesty, is the Visitor.
- II. All Statutes, Rules and Ordinances, are required to be immediately transmitted by the Council to the Visitor.

III. The Statutes, Rules and Ordinances made by the Council, if disapproved by the Visitor within two years from their enactment, become void and of no effect from the time when the Visitor's disapprobation shall be signified to the Chancellor.

IV. The Visitor shall not be required to visit the College ex officio more than once in three years; unless he be requested, in writing, under the hands of three members of the Council, or five members of the Convocation, to hold a Visitation for some special and urgent cause.

V. The Visitor is hereby authorised and empowered to summon before him, within the College, the President, Vice President, Professors, Scholars, and all other members and persons belonging to the College or University; to examine them on oath or otherwise, touching the conduct of any of the Officers or members, or other persons aforesaid; except that no person shall be compelled to criminate himself; to punish offences according to the Statutes; and to require a strict observance of the same.

TIT. III.—Of the Chancellor.

I. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province for the time being, is the Chancellor.

II. It is the office of the Chancellor to propose every Statute, Rule and Ordinance for the consideration of the Council, having previously consulted with the President or next senior member of the Council; and he shall propose, after such consultation, any Statute, Rule or Ordinance which may be placed in his hands, with a request to that effect, in writing, under the hands of any three members of the Council, or five members of the Convocation.

III. The Chancellor presides at all meetings of the Council or Convocation which he may think fit to attend, and appoints all meetings of the Council (the annual meeting excepted, as hereafter to be provided) under the Rules and Regulations to be hereafter made.

IV. It is the office of the Chancellor, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint all Professors; and he is hereby authorized and empowered, with the advice and consent of the Council, to nominate and appoint one of the Professors to be Vice President.

TIT. IV.—Of the Council.

I. The formation of the Council is regulated by the Charter.

II. It is the office of the Council to consider all Statutes, Rules and Ordinances proposed by the Chancellor; and it is thereupon empowered to frame and make all Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances, so proposed, for and concerning the College and University; and also by any new Statutes, Rules and Ordinances, so proposed, to revoke, renew, augment, or alter the same; subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in the Charter.

III. The Council shall have the sole trust, management, and disposal of the Funds of the College; of the Lands, Buildings, and all other property, whether fixed or moveable. It shall from time to time regulate the terms and conditions of leasing the Lands, collecting the Rents, investing the Funds, and the like; and shall have the sole power of affixing the College Seal to any paper or instrument by which any property shall be transferred or acquired.

IV. It is the office of the Council to declare what Professorships are necessary or expedient, and thereupon to establish the same; and all the Officers and Servants of the College or University, unless where it is otherwise provided by the Charter or the Statutes, shall be appointed by the Council.

V. The Council shall have the sole power of appointing the salaries, fees, and emoluments of all the Officers and Servants of the College or University, and of determining the payments to be made by the Scholars and all other members.

VI. The Council shall have a general superintendence over all the affairs of the College and University, and over the conduct of the President, Vice President, Professors, Scholars, and all other members.

VII. The Council shall have power and authority, both originally and upon appeal, to suspend, remove, or expel the Professors, Scholars, and all inferior Officers and members of the College and University, in the cases prescribed by the Statutes.

VIII. The Council shall be authorized and empowered, at their annual or other meetings, to summon before them the President, Vice-President, Professors, Scholars, and all other members of the College or University, and all persons belonging to the same, and to examine them upon oath or otherwise; except that no person shall be compelled to criminate himself.

IX. An Annual Meeting of the Council shall be held on the Tuesday before the last Thursday in the month of June, to be continued by adjournment for so many days as the business to be done may require.

X. All other meetings of the Council shall be convened by the Chancellor whenever he may think proper, on three days notice in writing being given to each member by the Registrar; and shall be held within the College, except some other place in Fredericton shall be specially appointed by the Chancellor at the time of convening the meeting.

XI. The Chancellor shall convene a meeting of the Council within ten days, after a request shall have been delivered to him, in writing under the hands of any three members of the Council, or five members of the Convocation,

TIT. V.—OF THE CONVOCATION.

I. The Convocation consists, according to the Charter, of the Chancellor, President, Masters of Arts and Superior Graduates.

II. The Convocation shall assemble in the College, in their proper habits; and not fewer than ten members shall form a Convocation, provided there shall be at least five resident within five miles of the College.

III. The Convocation shall assemble immediately after Divine Service on the first day of every Term, and on the days to which it shall be successively adjourned during the Term. It may also be convoked by the Chancellor, President, or Vice President, at any time during Term, by a public notice affixed in the Hall, and by summons sent to all the members within five miles of the College at least two days before the date of meeting.

IV. All questions in the Convocation shall be decided by the majority of votes of the members present; the presiding Officer to have a casting vote in case of an equality of votes.

V. It is the office of the Convocation to confer Degrees according to the Statutes; to admit and incorporate members of other Universities; to grant Letters of Fellowship; to grant Dispensations in cases not provided for by the Statutes and not contrary to them; and to deprive of Degrees in cases defined by the Statutes.

VI. The Convocation is also hereby authorized and empowered to make Regulations respecting the course of Instruction and Discipline to be pursued in the College and the University; and to elect Proctors, Examiners, and other Officers who may be thought necessary for those purposes, with such salaries as the Council shall appoint.

TIT. VI.—Of the President.

I. The Archbishop of the Province is the President of the College.

II. It is the office of the President to preside at all Meetings of the Council, which he may think fit to attend, in the absence of the Chancellor.

III. The President shall also preside in the absence of the Chancellor, at all meetings of the Convocation, and of the Officers of the College, which he may think fit to attend.

IV. The President is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint the Chaplain, when a Salary for that office shall be allotted by the Council.

TIT. VII.—Of the Vice-President.

I. The Residence of the President in the College, and his personal superintendence of its affairs, being incompatible with the fulfilment of his Ecclesiastical duties, a Vice-President shall be appointed as before provided, to hold his office during good behaviour.

II. It shall be the office of the Vice President to examine Students previously to their matriculation; to maintain the observance of the Statutes, as well by the Professors, Tutors, Proctors, and inferior Officers of the College, as by the Scholars and all other members; to enforce discipline by admonitions and punishments; in graver cases convening the Professors, Tutors and Proctors for consultation, or giving information to the Council; to be the Parent and Guardian of the Students, directing their studies, and promoting by all the means in his power their progress in Religion and Learning; to order and provide over the Collegiate Exercise; to direct the Steward in the Economy of the House; to regulate the inferior Officers and Servants; and to inspect all the affairs of the College.

III. The Vice President shall reside within the College, or in a House adjoining thereto, and shall preside at all Meetings of the Convocation and College, in the absence of the Chancellor and President.

IV. The Vice President shall receive a Salary and Fees, to be appointed by the Council, in addition to his Salary and Emoluments as Professor.

V. On a vacancy in the office of Vice President, the Senior Professor then in College shall discharge its duties, and receive a proportionate Salary, until a new appointment.

TIT. VIII.—Of the Professors.

I. The following Professorships shall be established in the College:—

1. Of Divinity and Metaphysics;
2. Of Classical Literature;
3. Of Mathematics;
4. Mathematics and Natural Philosophy;
5. Moral Philosophy;
6. History and the Law of Nature and Nations;
7. Logic and Rhetoric;
8. Modern Literature;
9. Anatomy, Chemistry and Medicine;
10. Music.

II. The Appointment of Professors is settled by the Charter; but the Council shall appoint the Salaries and Fees of the Professors, and decide any question which may arise respecting their Residences, and the Union of two or more Professorships in one person.

III. Every Professor shall deliver one Lecture at least in every week of Term, and more if required by the Council; and a Schedule shall be fixed up in the Hall on the first day of every Term, specifying the days and hours of the several Lectures; which Schedule shall be prepared by the Vice President on consultation with the several Professors.

IV. On the vacancy of a Professorship, by death or otherwise, the Vice President shall immediately signify the same to the Chancellor, and appoint some person duly qualified to read the usual Lectures until a new Professor shall enter on the office; and the person so appointed shall receive a proportionate salary for the time.

V. Every Professor, before his admission into his office, shall take the oath of Allegiance and the oath of Office.

VI. No Professor shall teach in the College any principles contrary to the doctrine or discipline of the United Church of England and Ireland, or to good morals, or to the British Constitution as by law established.

VII. Every Professor shall have power and authority to punish his Pupils by fine or imposition; provided that no fine so inflicted shall exceed five shillings, and no one imposition require more than a day's confinement on the part of the offender.

TIT. IX.—Of the Tutors.

I. To every Student, on his admission, and until he shall be of four years standing, a Tutor shall be assigned, selected from amongst the Professors, or Graduates, by, or with the assent of, the Vice President.

II. It shall be the office of the Tutors to assist and direct the private studies of their Pupils, inspect their religious and moral conduct, control their expences, and regulate those parts of their education and behaviour which are not within the province of the Professors, and are the subject for the attention of the Vice President.

III. The Tutor shall receive from their Pupils an annual sum, to be appointed by the Council.

IV. The Tutor shall have the same power as the Professors with respect to punishments.

Tit. X. — Of the Registrar.

I. The office of Registrar of the University, Clerk of the Council, and Treasurer, shall be executed by the same person, who shall be appointed by the Chancellor, by and with the advice of the Council, to continue during good behaviour.

II. The Registrar shall find competent Sureties, who shall enter into Bonds to the Corporation of the College for the due and faithful discharge of his office.

III. The Registrar shall collect and receive the Revenues and Monies belonging to the University and College, from whatever source accruing: he shall keep Charters, Records, and all other muniments belonging to the College, and the Matricula or Register of the names of all members of the University and College: he shall act as Secretary to the Council and Convocation, and register their respective proceedings: and he shall apply the funds in his hands to the payment of salaries and other purposes according to the Statutes and the orders of the Council.

IV. A notice in writing from the Vice President of any fines imposed on Members of the College for offences contrary to the Statutes or Regulations grounded thereon, shall be sufficient authority to the Registrar to deduct the amount of such fines from the salaries of the persons on whom they are imposed, or to add it to their account with the College.

V. The Registrar shall inspect the lands, buildings, and other property of the Corporation, direct the execution of ordinary repairs and improvements, and report the necessity of any extraordinary expenditure to the Council.

VI. The Registrar shall submit a full and particular statement of accounts to the Council at the Annual Meeting, and at other times when they shall especially require it.

VII. The Registrar shall receive an annual salary to be appointed by the Council, and such fees as they shall think fit.

Tit. XI.—Of the Proctors.

I. Two Graduates shall be annually elected Proctors by the Convocation, each of whom shall nominate a Preproctor.

II. It shall be the duty of the Proctors and Preproctors to maintain peace, order, and good morals amongst the members of the College and University.

III. They shall admonish offenders, whenever occasion may require; and if suspected offenders shall not be satisfied, shall make an immediate report to the Vice President.

Tit. XII.—Of the Examiners.

I. Two Graduates, not under the Degree of Master of Arts, shall be annually elected Examiners by the Convocation.

II. It shall be their office to examine all Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, and to give a Testimonium in such as they shall judge fit, which shall also be a Licence for the study of Civil Law; to those who may not choose to proceed in Arts.

III. The Examiners shall take a solemn oath that they will faithfully discharge their duty.

Tit. XIII.—Of the Chaplain.

I. The President shall appoint a Chaplain, when the Council shall have allotted a Salary for such an Office; and he shall hold the office during good behaviour.

II. During a vacancy in the Office of Chaplain, the Vice President shall appoint one of the Professors and Tutors who shall be in Holy Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland, to officiate in rotation.

III. It shall be the duty of the Chaplain to read the Morning and Evening Prayers of the United Church in the College Chapel, every day during Term, at such hours as the Vice President shall appoint; except on Sundays and other occasions when specific exceptions may be made by the Statutes or notified by the Vice President.

TIT. XIV.—OF THE LIBRARIAN.

I. The Vice President shall appoint the Chaplain, or some Graduate or Senior Student to be Librarian, during good behaviour, with such salary as the Council shall allot.

II. The Librarian shall observe, and take care that all others observe, the Rules and Regulations which may be adopted by the Council respecting the Library; and shall report every deviation to the Vice President.

TIT. XV.—OF THE BIBLE CLERK.

I. The Vice President shall appoint one of the Students to be Bible Clerk, during pleasure, with such salary as the Council shall allot.

II. The Bible Clerk shall observe, and take care that all others observe, the Rules and Regulations appointed by the Vice President, respecting attendance at Chapel; and report to the Vice President every deviation from the same.

TIT. XVI.—OF SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS.

I. It shall be competent to His Majesty's General or Local Government, or any member thereof, or to the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, or any Branch Society or Committee connected therewith, or to any Association desirous of promoting Religion or Learning, or to individuals to found Scholarships or Fellowships; with such endowments, conditions, and qualifications as shall not be at variance with the Charter or the Statutes, and as the Council shall approve.

TIT. XVII. — Of the Commoners.

I. All Undergraduate Students, not receiving pecuniary emolument from the College, or Scholarship founded in it, shall be styled Commoners.

II. No person shall reside and board in the College who shall not have become a member by regular application or incorporation.

III. The several Members of the College shall be entitled to choose vacant apartments according to seniority of standing; but members of the Foundation shall take precedence of others in this respect.

TIT. XVIII. — Of the Steward and Stewards.

I. The Steward shall be appointed during pleasure by the Council with the approbation of the Vice President, and shall employ such inferior officers and servants only as the Vice President shall in writing under his hand approve.

II. The Steward shall give due security for the Plate and other moveable Property which shall be committed to his charge.

III. The Steward shall be allowed such apartments in the College, and such salary and allowance from the Funds of the College and from the Resident Members as the Council may direct.

IV. The Steward shall furnish Table Linen, Plates, Dishes and Glasses, Provisions, Fuel, and other necessaries, in such manner and under such Rules and Regulations, and perform such other duties, as the Council may appoint.

TIT. XIX. — Of the Gardener.

The Gardener shall be appointed by the Council during pleasure, with the approbation of the Vice President, and shall employ such assistants only as the Vice President shall in writing under his hand approve; the salary and allowances to be appointed by the Council.

TIT. XX.—Of the Porter.

I. The Porter shall be appointed by the Vice President during pleasure, and shall receive such salary as the Council may allot.

II. It shall be the office of the Porter to keep the keys of all the outer doors and gates of the College; and strictly to attend to the Vice President's regulations and directions respecting the opening and closing of the same, and such other matters as may be given him in charge.

TIT. XXI.—Of the Reader.

A Reader shall be appointed by the Chancellor during pleasure, with a salary to be fixed by the Council; whose duty it shall be to walk before the Chancellor, President, Vice President and Preacher, on solemn occasions, with the insignia of his office; to summon the Council and Convocation; and to serve all Notices and Processes.

TIT. XXII.—Of the Secretary.

The Secretary shall be appointed by the Council during pleasure, with the approval of the Vice President, and shall be charged with the custody of the records of the Council, and shall be the officer to whom all applications for degrees shall be made, and who shall be the officer to whom all applications for degrees shall be made, and who shall be the officer to whom all applications for degrees shall be made.

BOOK II.
OF THINGS.

TIT. I.—OF PROPERTY, REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

I. The sole management of the Property, Revenue and Expenditure of the College is vested in the Council.

II. All Salaries shall be paid quarterly, with a proportionate share of a constant pension, up to the time of the death or removal of any officer of the College or University.

III. Gavel, Money, Librarian, Time, and all other, and whatsoever which may be due to or receivable by the College shall be received by the Registrar, who shall pay such sum to any Officers or Servants as they may be entitled to.

TIT. II.—OF THE BUILDINGS AND EXPENDITURE.

All Improvements and Repairs shall be charged upon the Funds of the College, except the reparation of injuries committed by individuals, and such additions within the apartments of the Vice-President, Professors, and other members, as are calculated in the judgment of the Council rather for ornament than use.

TIT. III.—OF THE RECTORERY.

I. The Refectory is designed, as well for the Common Meals of the members of the College, as for the performance of Academic Exercises and other public business.

II. At Meals there shall be a High Table for the Vice-President, Professors and Graduates of and above the degree of Master of Arts; a Second Table for Bachelors of Arts and Licensed Students of four years standing; and a Third Table for all Undergraduates.

TIT. IV.—Of the Chapel.

Places shall be assigned in the Chapel by the President for the several Officers, Graduates and members of the College, according to their Office, Degree or Standing.

TIT. V.—Of the Library.

I. No person shall have a Key of the Library except the Vice President and Librarian.

II. There shall be Cases with Locks in the Library for valuable Books, Medals, and other things of importance.

III. The Library shall be open for all members of the University to read therein from ten o'clock in the morning to three in the afternoon, every day during Term, except Sundays and Holidays.

IV. A Catalogue of all the Books shall be duly kept by the Librarian; and no Books whatever shall be taken out of the Library, except by the Chancellor, President or Vice President, or on the delivery to the Librarian of a written Licence from one or other of those officers.

V. The Council shall particularly inspect and examine the Library at their Annual Meetings.

TIT. VI.—Of the Apartments.

I. The Vice President, Professors, and members on the Foundation according to their seniority, shall be provided with suitable Apartments in the College.

II. The remaining Apartments, if any, shall be allotted to Commoners, according to seniority.

III. No Undergraduate of the College shall reside out of it without special permission from the Vice President, designating the house in which he may be permitted to lodge.

BOOK III. OF DISCIPLINE.

TIT. I.—Of Matriculation.

I. A Matriculation Register shall be kept by the Registrar of the University, in which he shall enter the names of all persons admitted members, with their age, place of birth and education, and the names, place of residence and rank of their Parents.

II. No person shall be matriculated without previous examination by the Vice President, whose duty it shall be to ascertain if he be competently acquainted with the elements of the Latin and Greek Languages, and be capable of writing a thesis on a given subject in Latin as well as in English.

III. If a person be matriculated in Vacation, the following Term shall be reckoned as his first.

TIT. II.—Of Terms, Vacations and Holidays.

I. The Academical Year shall begin on the first Thursday in October, and shall contain Four Terms, in which all Scholastic Exercises shall be performed:—

1. The first or Michaelmas Term, shall begin on the first Thursday in October, and end on the third Wednesday in December;

2. The second, or Lent Term, shall begin on the second Thursday in February, and end on the Wednesday preceding Easter Sunday;

3. The third, or Easter Term shall begin on the Wednesday after Easter, and end on the Saturday preceding Whitsunday;

4. The fourth or Trinity Term, shall begin on the Wednesday after Whitsunday, and end on the first Wednesday in July.

II. On the first and last days of every Term, after Divine Service in the College Chapel or the Parish Church of Fredericton, the President or Professor of Divinity shall preach a Sermon; the members of the University attending in their full Academical Habit.

III. The Holidays, and other public Festivals and Fasts appointed by competent Authority, shall be duly observed.

Tit. III. Of Divine Services.

I. On every Sunday in Term, all the resident members of the University, who shall not have obtained dispensations to the contrary, shall attend the Morning and Evening Service in the Parish Church of Fredericton. On every ordinary day in Term, they shall attend the Morning and Evening Service in the College Chapel.

II. Dispensations for non-attendance in Church or Chapel shall be granted by the Vice-President to such members, as shall appear to his satisfaction to be, bona-fide not of the Established Church of England and Ireland.

III. In the Chapel the Daily Lessons shall be read by the Undergraduates, times proper for the occasion, by such persons as the Vice-President shall appoint, and it shall be the duty of the Officiating Chaplain to take care that they be read with distinctness, propriety and becoming solemnity.

Tit. IV. Of Lectures.

I. The full, specifying the Lectures both of Professors and of Teachers, to be given during each Term, and the days and hours of each Lecture, shall be affixed in the Hall on the first day of Term.

II. Every Undergraduate shall attend the appointed Lectures every day on which they shall be delivered, and shall not absent himself from any Lecture without special permission under the hand of the Vice-President.

THE V.—OF DISCUSSIONS.

I. All Undergraduates shall compose a Latin and English Theme, alternately, once a week during Term, either in prose or in verse, on subjects to be proposed on the preceding Saturday by the Vice-President.

II. Two Declamations in Latin and English, shall be composed every week by the resident Bachelors of Arts and Licentiates in Civil Law, in rotation, and publicly recited by them every Saturday during Term, on subjects to be proposed by the Vice-President.

III. Occasionally in Term there shall be Disputations, either Logical or Rhetorical, under the direction of the Vice-President and Professors.

THE VI.—OF MORAL CONDUCT AND BEHAVIOUR.

I. Every exertion shall be made by all the Officers of the University and College to maintain Good Morals.

II. No Undergraduate shall resort to any Inn, Tavern, or place of public amusement, without special permission of the Vice-President.

III. No Member of the University shall promulgate any principles contrary to Christian morals, or to the British Constitution as by law established.

IV. No Undergraduate shall remain out of College, nor any visitor in an Undergraduate's apartment, after ten o'clock at night, without special permission of the Vice-President.

V. No member of the College shall break, deface, or otherwise injure the Buildings, Walls, Doors, Windows, Fences, or other property belonging to the College.

VI. The Vice-President, Professors, Tutors and Erectors shall have power and authority to enter the apartments of all other members of the College at all hours.

VII. Juniors shall pay due respect to their Seniors, both in public and in private, by taking off their Caps, giving place to them, and other usual modes of attention and civility.

Under the Sign of St. Michael

VIII. Inferior Officers and members of the University are required to pay respectful deference to the admonitions of the President, Vice-President, Professors, Tutors, Proctors and Pro-proctors.

TIT. VII.—Of Repasts.

I. No Undergraduate shall require the Steward to provide any repast in his private apartment without special permission under the hand of the Vice President.

II. The Hours for the Common Repasts shall be appointed by the Vice President.

III. Any member of the College may introduce a friend to a Common Repast, paying such sum as the Council shall appoint.

TIT. VIII.—Of Habits.

I. The Dress of all the members of the University shall be plain, decent, and cleanly, without superfluous ornament.

II. The Academical Habits shall be the same as those which are worn in the University of Oxford, as they are appropriated to each Degree, Faculty, Rank, Station, Situation or Standing respectively.

III. No Member of the University shall appear at Church, Chapel, Lecture or Refectory, without his Academical Habit; or in the Town of Fredericton unless by dispensation from the Vice President.

TIT. IX.—Of Examinations.

I. At the end of Michaelmas, Lent and Trinity Terms all the Undergraduates shall be Examined by the President or Vice President and Professors, and bracketed according to their respective pre-eminence; and Rewards shall be conferred on those who may have passed the best examinations.

II. On the day above-mentioned Bachelors of Arts and Licentiates, who may be found to have neglected their studies or to have committed any great irregularity, shall lose their Term at the discretion of the President, Vice President and Professors.

III. Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or for a Licence in other Sciences, shall be solemnly examined by the Examiners. At least seven days Notice of such Examination shall be given in writing by the Vice-President, and affixed in the Hall. The Examination shall be in the Greek and Latin Languages, Composition in Latin and English, and in the Sciences and Arts in which the Statutes shall have required attendance on the respective Lectures. The Examination shall be open to all members of the University. If the Examiners be satisfied with the proficiency of the Candidate, they shall give him a written Testimonium under their hands.

IV. At the Annual Meeting of the Council there shall be a solemn Examination of the Bachelors of Arts and Licentiates in Civil Law, and Rewards shall be bestowed upon the most deserving.

TIT. X.—Of Residence and Keeping Term.

I. No Term shall be kept, or reckoned towards a Degree, without Academical Residence during the whole Term, or at least three fourths of it.

II. Academical Residence shall consist in Boarding in the College and Lodging therein, unless a dispensation be granted to the contrary, in wearing the proper Habit, in attending Divine Service and Lectures, in performing Exercises, and in complying with all other Academical Regulations according to the Statutes.

III. The Keeping of a Term may be disallowed by the Vice President to any Student for neglect of duty, for great irregularities, for not paying the College dues, or for contracting debts elsewhere.

IV. The Terms in which a Student shall have been matriculated, and shall take his Degree, shall be reckoned as kept without further residence.

TIT. XI.—Of College Dues and Fees.

I. The Council shall, as often as they may see occasion, regulate the Payments to be made to the University, College, and their several Officers and Servants, by Students and all other members.

II. A Table of these Regulations shall be kept affixed in the Great Hall, under the hand of the Registrar.

III. No payment shall be claimed, as due to the College or University, by any Officer or Servant on any account or pretence whatever, except such as shall be stated in the said Table.

BOOK IV.

OF HONORS.

Tit. I.—Of Qualifications for Degrees.

I. No Degree, other than Honorary Degrees, shall be conferred upon any person whose name shall not be on the Matricula of the University; nor unless he be of the Standing, shall have kept the Terms, performed the Exercises, and passed the Examination, prescribed by the Statutes; nor unless he be a person of good morals.

II. No Degree in Divinity can be conferred, unless the candidate shall have previously subscribed the Thirty-nine Articles in the presence of the President or Professor of Divinity.

Tit. II.—Of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

I. No Student shall be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, until he shall have completed Four Years in the University, from the Term or Day of his Matriculation.

II. The Candidate shall have kept Sixteen Terms by Academic Residence; but the Convocation may dispense with the Residence, not the Standing, of two of these Terms, besides the Terms kept by Matriculation and Graduation.

III. He shall produce a Certificate from the Vice-President and Senior Professor that he has kept the requisite Terms and performed the proper Exercises, and a Testimonium from the Examining Masters that he has passed the requisite Examination.

Tr. III.—Of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

I. No person shall be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, until he shall have completed seven years from the time of his taking the degree of Bachelor.

II. The Candidate shall have kept twelve Terms, including the Term on which he was admitted to the Degree of Bachelor, and that on which he shall take the Master's Degree; but the Convocation may dispense with his residence during some of the other Terms.

III. He shall have publicly recited two Declamations, one in Latin and the other in English, on subjects to be chosen by himself and approved by the Professor of Moral Philosophy; such Declamations to be made at his own composition, and to occupy not less than a quarter of an hour each in the delivery.

IV. He shall produce a Candidate from the Vice-President and Professor of Moral Philosophy, that he has kept the requisite Terms and performed the appointed Exercises.

Tr. IV.—Of the Degree of Bachelor in Civil Law.

I. No person shall be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor in Civil Law, until he shall have completed seven years from his Matriculation.
